SHIPPERS BEGIN ARGUMENT TODAY

Will Attempt to Show that Rate Increase Is Not Justifiable.

CARRIERS FINISH PLEAS

Louis D. Brandeis, for I. C. C., Expected to Close Case of the Protestants Probably Tomorrow.

Attorneys representing the Eastern carriers applying for a 5 per cent in-crease in freight rates finished their opening argument yesterday before the Interstate Commerce Commission and will be followed today by attorneys representing shippers who are prote resenting shippers who are protesting against the increases. The chief arguments upon behalf of shippers will be made by Frank Lyon and Charles M. Johnston, representing producers of bituminous coal; Wade H. Ellis, representing shippers of low grade commodities, and others.

It is expected that Louis D. Brandels, representing the commission, will close

The opening argument of the railroad attorneys had covered the entire case of the carriers, this being as directed of the carriers, this being as directed by the commission. George F. Brownell, general counsel of the Eric Railroad, Hugh L. Bond, ir., of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and J. L. Minnis, general counsel of the Wabash Ballroad, made arguments ves-terday upon behalf of all the carriers petitioning for the increase, but Mi Minnis particularly for the carriers in Central Freight Association territory. This territory comprises the States lying between the Mississippi River and Pitts bury and Buffalo, south to the Ohio and Potomac Rivers. In this territory Mr.

Breindeis and others concede that the carriers are entitled to some increase.
Mr. Minnis said that the railroads in Solicitor Folk Intends to Reoper Central Freight Association territory comprised more than one-half the area and more than 54 per cent of the rail-road mileage in the present proceeding. territory and that they deserve special consider tion. He said that the records of the commission would show that rates in this territory are substantially lower in every instance than the rates for similar distances, in other territories. Mr. begins public hearings in its investigation Minnis divided the roads in the territory into the financial affairs of the New into a series of groups, and in one he said it had increased its mileage in 1913 Haven Railroad system in order to inover 1810 and increased its property in-vestment $2.55,503,220, but that in the same period, while operating revenue increased $71,385,393, net operating income had de-teroad has been looted up to the time creased $15,491,794.
